MUSTAPHA RAJI, under the penalty of perjury, affirms as follows:

1. I am a resident of 2013 Adams Street, Unit 5, Hollywood, Florida 33020.
2. On the morning of December 20, 2019, I was sleeping in the living room of my home when I heard knocking on my door.
3. I approached the front door and observed approximately eight law enforcement officers with guns drawn outside of my home.
4. I directed the officers to my back door because the front door was jammed.
5. I opened the back door and the officers brought me outside of my home and handcuffed me. Some of the officers entered my home.
6. I was then led back into the house while handcuffed and brought into the living room area.
7. I waited with the officers while they gathered some of my personal belongings.
8. As the officers began to escort me out of my home, an officer asked me, in sum and substance, “where are your phones?” I did not respond.
9. As I left my home I observed an officer carrying my two phones.

10. I was then driven to an FBI office. While at the office I was instructed that I had to provide the officers with certain contact information. I told them the phone numbers would be in one of the phones that they had in their possession. An agent then instructed me to unlock the phone. Because I did not think I could refuse, I complied. The officers then retrieved the information from the phone.
11. At no time during my arrest did I ask to use my cell phone.
12. At no time during my arrest did law enforcement present me with a search and seizure warrant.
13. At no time during my arrest did I consent to the seizure of my cell phone or any information therefrom.
